RIFLE GLOSSARY

Air rifle – A gun that uses a .177 caliber lead pellet propelled by compressed air instead of a gunpowder charge. The rifles can weigh up to 12.12 pounds.

Cleaned – A perfect target, in which the shooter hits a 10 on each of the 10 targets on the sheet for a score of 100. Can also be used to refer to a perfect match.

Front sight – The sight attached to the end of the barrel of the rifle, holding the front aperture.

Electronic targets – A target system that uses microphones and sound waves from the bullet or pellet going through the paper to send to a monitor on each point.

Iron sights – Sights that employ no magnification.

Kneeling – Shooting from a kneeling position with a sling and kneeling roll to support the position.

Off hand – The unsupported standing position.

Perfect match score – In air rifle and smallbore, 600 is perfect.

Prone – Shooting from a lying position.

Record shots – Also known as "shots for record," those shots that are counted toward the match score, with "sighters" not included.

Relay – One group of shooters firing the match at the same time.

Shooting glove – A padded glove, with or without fingers, used to ensure the comfort of the non-dominant hand (i.e., a right-handed shooter wears a glove on the left hand) as the shooter supports the rifle.

Shooting jacket – The jacket is made of leather or canvas and provides support and pads the shooter to minimize the effect of pulse and recoil. There are strict guidelines regarding the thickness.

Shooting boots – Boots designed for rifle shooting. They have the toe end of the sole and the heel cut flat for stability.

Shooting trousers – Snug canvas and/or leather pants usually worn over running tights or sweatpants. They often have padded reinforcements sewn on both knees and the seat to prevent the slipping of elbows and knees when firing from the kneeling position.

Sighting shots – Practice shots taken before going "for record." Sighting shots are unlimited and may be fired before the beginning of each position. Once a position's first record shot has been fired, no further sighting shots are permitted.

Sling – Adjustable strap with buckle adjustments and arm cuffs that provide stability. A sling is attached to the rifle and helps to support it in prone and kneeling positions.

Smallbore – A .22 caliber gun with an iron sight used in competition. It can be customized with special accessories and/or alterations (barrel length and style, stock, design, etc.) to fit the shooter's needs and comforts.

SCORING SYSTEM

AIR RIFLE

Course of Fire – Competitors stand and shoot lead pellets from .177 caliber rifles at targets 10 meters away.

Rifle – Air rifles can be either air or gas powered and weigh up to 12.12 pounds by NCAA regulations.

Time – Competitors have 75 minutes to fire 60 shots from the standing position.

Perfect Match Score – A perfect match score of 600 is the maximum for air rifle.

Actual size of an air rifle target

Course of Fire – In smallbore three-position rifle, athletes fire .22 caliber rifles from the kneeling, prone, and standing (also called off hand) positions at targets 50 feet away.

Rifle – Smallbore rifles may not exceed 17.6 pounds by NCAA regulations.

Time – Competitors have 105 minutes for 20 record shots in the kneeling position, 20 record shots in the prone position and 20 record shots in the standing position.

Perfect Match Score – A perfect match score of 600 is the maximum for smallbore.

Actual size of a smallbore target

Jaycee Carter helped lead the Huskers to the NCAA Championships last season and looks to fuel the team's run to another finals as a senior.

YOUNG HUSKERS EAGER FOR SHOT AT NCAA TITLE

Head coach Ashley MacAllister begins her third year at the helm of the Nebraska rifle team in 2016-17. She is joined by assistant coach Rick Johnson who has one year at Nebraska under his belt. The duo led the Nebraska rifle team to its fourth consecutive top-eight finish in 2015-16 and looks to tie the school record for most consecutive trips to the NCAA Championships (five) this season.

"I believe that with the team we have, taking into account other teams, that we can be top six in the country [in 2016-17]," MacAllister said. "We have the potiential to do a lot of great things... and I hope that we exceed all expectations."

The Husker squad consists of only two seniors in Jaycee Carter and Rachel Martin. The pair has signifcant collegiate experience and will be looked to for leadership both on and off the range by a team with nine underclassmen and a junior transfer.

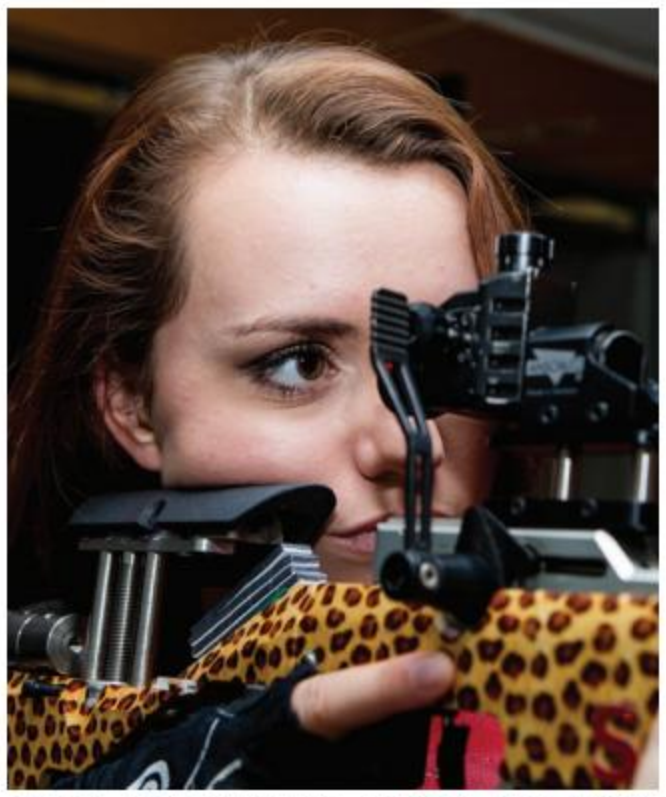
"Jaycee and Rachel [were] wonderful leaders to the underclassmen last year, and I expect that this will continue," MacAllister said. "They are important to this team not only on the range, but most importantly cultivating an environment where everyone will be successful."

Carter and Martin, co-captains this season, have each appeared more than 40 times in their first three years as Huskers in both smallbore and air rifle. Martin, the 2015 smallbore national champion, is a seven-time All-American, while Carter earned an All-America award in 2015 in air rifle. Both Carter and Martin have competed for the Huskers at the NCAA Championships. Off the range, they have been stellar examples for the team. Carter and Martin are each two-time Academic All-Big Ten picks, have earned spots on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll each semester at Nebraska and have been named to the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team for three consecutive years.

Joining the seniors as returners this season are five sophomores. Katie Brown, Jordan Miller, Nina Radulovic, Hannah Virga and Rachel Yager all saw some action last year as freshmen but will play much bigger roles in 2016-17 after Nebraska lost four seniors from last season.

"We lost four seniors this past year [and] we have relied on all of these girls at some point in time," MacAllister said. "It is next to impossible to replace one of these four girls, but we have to keep moving forward in hopes that working hard to get better will be enough for now. It will be very hard to replace Denise [Martin's] scores, but I have confidence that the returning team members will work to get better on the range. If our team can focus on pushing forward with their scores then we won't need to replace [Martin], we [will be] able to make the whole team better."

Radulovic has the most experience of the sophomores. The Serbian competed in every match for the Huskers as a freshman in both smallbore and air rifle. She fired career highs of 592 (air rifle) and 584 (smallbore).



Senior Rachel Martin claimed the NCAA smallbore championship in 2015. The Peralta, N.M., native will help lead the team in 2016-17 in pursuit of a fifth consecutive NCAA Championship appearance.

Virga saw the second-most action as a freshman behind Radulovic, appearing 12 times in smallbore and 13 times in air rifle. The Chandler, Ariz., native broke the school record for highest air rifle score (597) ever shot by a freshman and looks to compete for a spot in both disciplines.

Miller earned some time on the range in her debut season, appearing six times in air rifle and seven times in smallbore. Miller tallied career highs of 567 and 588 in smallbore and air rifle, respectively.

Yager and Brown saw limited action as freshmen, but are eagar to make contributions this year. The pair appeared a combined total of eight times in smallbore and nine times in air rifle in 2015-16. Brown posted career-best scores of 556 in smallbore and 575 in air rifle. Yager notched high scores of 559 in smallbore and 579 in air rifle.

The seven returners are joined by five newcomers, including four freshmen and one transfer. Dacotah Faught (Amenia, N.D.) comes to Nebraska from the University of Tennessee at Martin, where she earned NRA All-America honors as a sophomore. Kayla Gadeken (Seward, Neb.), Maddie Korthas (Belgrade, Mont.), Samantha Peterson (Ham Lake, Minn.) and Sarah Sutton (Oak Harbor, Ohio) are part of the incoming freshman class. The group will have the opportunity to make a significant impact on the team in their first year.

"All of these girls are bringing a lot of experience to the table," MacAllister said. "Dacotah is coming to us from UT Martin where she was an All-American. Not only does she excel athletically, but she is an exceptional person who embodies everything we are looking for here a Nebraska. Dacotah is going to bring experience to a team that is relatively young.

"Kayla is a local girl who I expect will be able to help us in both air rifle and smallbore this year. I look forward to seeing Sarah grow throughout this next year. She is a strong air rifle shooter and will be a great addition to Rachel Martin and Jaycee Carter. I think [Samantha] is going to have the most impact right away in smallbore. She has had recent success in smallbore and is exactly what we need for next year. Maddie [comes from a club with] a rich tradition of rifle shooters, and I expect Maddie to be one of those. Maddie is a hard worker, and I expect her to improve throughout her years at Nebraska."

This talented team will take aim at some of the top teams in the country throughout the 2016-17 season.

The Huskers open the season on Oct. 15 in Oxford, Miss., with a conference matchup against Ole Miss.

NU returns home and takes a week off before its home opener against Ohio State at the NU Rifle Range on Oct. 29.

Then the Huskers head to Lexington, Ky., for a pair of matches on Nov. 5 (Akron) and Nov. 6 (Kentucky).

On Nov. 12 and 13, the Big Red will host the University of Texas at El Paso for the final matches of the fall semester.

The team will then take more than two months off before resuming competition.

NU opens the spring semester with five conference opponents, starting with Army West Point on Jan. 15 in New York. The following day, on Jan. 16, Nebraska faces NC State at West Point, N.Y.

The Huskers continue a series of away matches in Morgantown, W. Va. On Jan. 21, the team will face off against defending national champion West Virginia, followed by a meeting with Navy on Jan. 22.

Nebraska will conclude its away matches with a trip to Memphis, Tenn., on Jan. 28, to take on the Memphis Tigers.

MacAllister, Johnson and the Huskers close the regular season at home on Feb. 2 against Alaska.

On Feb. 19, the team takes a shot at a fifth consecutive NCAA Championship appearance when it competes at the NCAA Qualifiers in Murray, Ky.

On Feb. 24-26, NU fights for the conference title at the GARC Championships.

The NCAA Championships are set for March 10-11 in Columbus, Ohio.

GREAT AMERICA RIFLE CONFERENCE

Nebraska joined the Great America Rifle Conference in 2004-05 after seven years as an independent program. The conference, which enters its 20th year of operation, includes Nebraska, Army West Point, Kentucky, Memphis, Mississippi, West Virginia, Navy, Akron and North Carolina State.

Before joining the organization, the Huskers faced nearly a month-long break between qualifiers and the NCAA Championships. As a member of the GARC, Nebraska can compete for the conference championship in the interim, allowing it to gauge its performance before heading to nationals. Over the last 12 seasons since joining the GARC, Nebraska has finished as high as a program-best second place at the ensuing NCAA Championships.

For more information visit the conference web site at GARCRifle.com.

COACHES & STAFF

2016-17 Nebraska Rifle Coaches

ASHLEY MacALLISTER

Head Coach (Third Year) Murray State (2012)

Ashley MacAllister was named the fifth rifle coach in the history of the Nebraska rifle program in July 2014. She begins her third season in 2016-17 after taking the Huskers to the NCAA Championships each of her first two seasons at Nebraska.

MacAllister came to Nebraska after spending the 2013-14 season as an assistant coach at Kentucky. She inherited a Nebraska program that finished fifth at the 2014 NCAA Championships.

In her first season (2014-15) at Nebraska, MacAllister led the Huskers to their third consecutive NCAA Championship appearance, where the team finished fourth overall. MacAllister also coached Rachel Martin to an individual smallbore championship. Martin captured the title and became only the third Husker to win an individual championship. Under MacAllister, the team finished third in the conference and 7-5 during the regular season.

In 2015-16, MacAllister added assistant coach Rick Johnson to her staff. The pair led the Huskers to a 8-6 regular-season record, along with a sixth-place finish at the GARC Championships. Additionally, the pair took NU to its fourth consecutive NCAA appearance, where the team finished eighth in her second season at Nebraska. MacAllister also produced two All-Americans in Rachel and Denise Martin. MacAllister also led the the Puerto Rico National Team at the 2016 Summer Olympics in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, as its head coach.

Before coming to Nebraska, MacAllister assisted in the day-to-day management of the Kentucky rifle program under Coach Harry Mullins. MacAllister coordinated practice plans, matches, team travel, equipment and facility management at Kentucky. She also assisted in recruiting. MacAllister helped the Wildcats to a third-place finish at the 2014 NCAA Championships.

MacAllister was a four-year letterwinner and a team captain at Murray State. Her career for the Racers included a third-place overall team finish in air rifle at the 2010 NCAA Championships. She was a member of the Ohio Valley Conference All-Newcomer Team in air rifle in 2009. She was a two-time second-team All-OVC selection in air rifle. MacAllister was also a leader on Ohio Valley Conference championship teams in 2010 and 2011. She helped Murray State to a fifth-place team finish as a junior at the 2011 NCAA Championships and a seventh-place team finish in 2010.

MacAllister earned her bachelor's degree in political science from Murray State in May of 2012, before spending the 2012-13 season as a graduate assistant for the Racers rifle team. She assisted in the daily operations of the program, including the coordination of team travel and operation of the target system during team matches. She earned her master's degree in human development and leadership from Murray State in May of 2013. MacAllister also spent a year as an intern within the Murray State athletic department, gaining a working knowledge of each area in the department.

In addition to her experience at Murray State and Kentucky, MacAllister spent five years assisting with the Civilian Marksmanship Program. In the summers of 2012, 2013 and 2014, she served as assistant director, preparing for summer camps by hiring and training camp counselors, coordinating travel and managing the daily operations of the summer camps. She began her association with the Civilian Marksmanship Program in 2009 and 2010, serving as a camp counselor and teaching shooting skills to junior high and high school students.

A native of Eubank, Ky., MacAllister was heavily involved in campus and community activities at Murray State. She served on the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee's executive committee and represented Murray State at annual Ohio Valley Conference meetings. She was also the vice-chairman of the Kentucky Federation of College Republicans and the Murray State College Republicans. She also spent two months in the summer of 2011 working in the office of Kentucky Congressman Hal Rogers at the U.S. House of Representatives.

Her husband Tim is the video coordinator for Creighton University's basketball program. The couple lives in Ashland.

Rick Johnson was named the assistant rifle coach at Nebraska on Aug. 20, 2015. He begins his second season with the Huskers in 2016-17.

In his first season at Nebraska, Johnson helped lead NU to its fourth consecutive NCAA appearance, where the team finished eighth. Johnson produced two All-Americans in Denise and Rachel Martin in 2015-16. Additionally, he helped the Huskers to a 8-6 regular-season record, along with a sixth-place finish at the GARC Championships in his debut season with Nebraksa.

Prior to coming to Nebraska, Johnson served as the assistant coach at Army West Point for three seasons under head coach Ron Wigger from 2011 to 2014. During the 2014-15 season, Johnson was the acting head coach at Army West Point and helped mentor the team to a 7-6 record and a seventh-place finish at the GARC Championships.

During his first year at Army West Point, Johnson played an instrumental part in the team's fourth-place finish at the NCAA Championships. In the four years Johnson served as coach, the Black Knights finished 30-17 and made three NCAA appearances (2012-13-14). His peers rewarded his efforts by voting him the GARC Assistant Coach of the Year for the 2013-14 and 2014-15 seasons. He was the CRCA Coach of the Year in 2014-15.

Prior to working at Army West Point, Johnson founded a junior marksmanship program at Harvard in 2005. The program is meant for individuals 10-20 years old who are interested in competitive shooting. The program teaches firearm safety, along with marksmanship skills. He served as the director for the program until 2011. From 2006 to 2011, Johnson coached the Massachusetts Junior Rifle Team, comprised of the top shooters within the state.

Johnson graduated from the University of Massachusetts-Lowell with a degree in meteorology in 1999. Following graduation, he served as an assistant staff meteorologist at MIT for eight years.

Johnson has been a competitive smallbore shooter for over 25 years. He is a three-time Massachusetts state champion, claiming the 3-position Junior State Titles in 1985 and 1986, and also capturing the 1986 Prone Junior State Championship.

Johnson is a licensed USA shooting level one rifle official and advanced rifle coach. He and his wife Ann have one son, Erik.

GETTING TO KNOW COACH JOHNSON

What is your coaching philosophy?

"I like to keep things as simple as possible. This sport is so technical with all the specialized gear [and] it is easy to become lost in all that. Breathe, relax and shoot the middle of the target. What I mean by that is to do all your hard work in training; match day is just about being relaxed and letting your training take over."

What is your favorite part about being a coach?

"I enjoy working with each individual. Everyone thinks, acts and reacts differently to situations. I like figuring out how to best coach each individual athlete so that they can meet and surpass their goals."

Shawn Eichorst was recruited and hired by the University of Nebraska in 2012 and quickly displayed an incredible passion for the University and for its student-athletes as well as the State of Nebraska. As the leader of a tradition-rich athletic program with 24 intercollegiate teams, 600-plus student-athletes and more than 325 full-time employees, Eichorst has relied on a strong value system and a student-centered approach to lead the department. Nebraska's primary mission is to provide student-athletes with the resources and support they need to be successful in academics, athletics and life. The health, safety and welfare of student-athletes are priority one and the essence of every decision made at Nebraska. Since Eichorst arrived in Lincoln, resources and services in every student-athlete support unit have been reviewed, improved and enhanced, including academics, athletic medicine, life skills, nutrition, sports psychology, strength and conditioning and performance/research [i.e. Nebraska Athletic Performance Laboratory (NAPL) and the Center for Brain, Biology and Behavior (CB3)].

Eichorst has continued to move Nebraska forward aggressively with several new initiatives to enhance the student-athlete experience. Beginning in the summer of 2015, Nebraska became the first athletic department in the country to offer laptop computers to every student-athlete and created a data analytics department. Husker student-athletes in all sports now receive four-year, full cost of attendance-based scholarships. Nebraska was also the first-known department of athletics to create a post-eligibility opportunity (PEO) program, where every Husker letterwinner who graduates and has exhausted his or her eligibility has an opportunity to pursue either an internship, study abroad or graduate school program valued at $7,500. Nebraska was also one of the first institutions to create a spring service abroad trip, taking a team of student-athletes and staff to Guatemala in 2015 and to the Dominican Republic in 2016.

Eichorst is in high demand and has made more than 500 public appearances around the state and country and his monthly radio show and "Connecting on Campus" online column provide opportunities to connect and share the incredible activities, initiatives and accomplishments happening at the greater University and in the department. As a member of the Chancellor's Senior Administrative Team, Eichorst maintains a strong connection and collaboration between the University and athletics.

A highly respected national leader, Eichorst was appointed in 2015 to the Division I Football Oversight Committee. Most recently, Eichorst was named co-chair of the NCAA Division I Football Recruiting ad hoc working group. He also serves on the Big Ten Conference Program and Budget Review Committee. Eichorst was the first Director of Athletics from any conference to visit the Big Ten Conference-based Academic Alliance (formerly known as the Committee on Institutional Cooperation) at its Champaign, Ill., headquarters. The Big Ten Academic Alliance is a highly successful academic-based consortium of 15 schools, including all 14 in the Big Ten Conference. Nebraska is leading the Big Ten and the Big Ten Academic Alliance in several areas, including Digital Humanities and head injury research.

Under Eichorst, Nebraska extended its nation-leading total of CoSIDA Academic All-Americans to 325 and its nation-leading total of NCAA Top Ten Award winners to 17. More than 700 awards were presented at the 26th Annual Student-Athlete Awards Show—A Night at the Lied. In 2015-16, 109 student-athletes earned undergraduate or graduate degrees and the Big Ten Conference honored 209 Husker student-athletes with Academic All-Big Ten awards. For the first time in school history, all Nebraska teams had an NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR) of 960 or higher and the overall Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of 86 percent is the highest in program history. In addition, seven Husker teams (women's basketball, golf, gymnastics, softball, tennis and volleyball and men's tennis) had a GSR of 100 percent as reported in the fall of 2015.

During Eichorst's tenure, Nebraska has won three NCAA team Championships, increasing its total to 27. In 2012-13 and in 2014-15, the Nebraska women's bowling team earned the program's fourth and fifth NCAA titles, while the Husker volleyball team won the 2015 NCAA Championship, the program's fourth national title.

In 2016, the Husker men's track and field team swept the Big Ten Indoor and Outdoor Championships and 14 Nebraska teams competed in NCAA postseason action, including bowling, football, volleyball, women's swimming and diving, wrestling, softball, baseball, men's and women's gymnastics, rifle, and men's and women's indoor and outdoor track and field. In 2015-16, Nebraska produced 41 All-Americans who won 49 national awards, including 21 first-team honorees.

In 2013-14, Nebraska became one of only two NCAA institutions – and the first Big Ten program in history – to qualify for a football bowl game, and advance to NCAA postseason in the major team sports of volleyball, soccer, men's and women's basketball, baseball and softball. Additionally, Nebraska was the only institution to win a postseason game in six of those seven sports.

Nebraska's fan support continues to be unparalleled in college athletics. In 2015-16, top 15 national rankings for average attendance were reached across 10 sports—football, volleyball, men's and women's basketball, wrestling, soccer, softball, baseball and men's and women's gymnastics. Nebraska is the only school in the country to rank among the top 15 nationally in both football and men's basketball attendance and in volleyball and women's basketball. A tribute to loyal Husker fans, two sports lead the nation with consecutive home sellout streaks. Football has 347 consecutive sellouts and volleyball has 204 consecutive regular-season sellouts.

Under Eichorst's leadership, Nebraska continues to focus on improving its facilities and the game-day experience at all athletic venues. In August of 2015, Hibner Stadium and Barbara Hibner Field for soccer and the Sid and Hazel Dillon Tennis Center were completed. A new center-hung video board and sound system was installed in the Devaney Center in 2015 to improve the game-day experience for volleyball, wrestling and men's and women's gymnastics. In 2014, the largest wireless network system at a college football stadium in history was installed in Memorial Stadium, along with a state-of-the-art sound system. In the summer of 2013, Memorial Stadium expansion added the innovative NAPL inside East Stadium next to the Center for Brain, Biology and Behavior (CB3). That same year, Nebraska's men's and women's basketball teams became the primary tenants at Pinnacle Bank Arena, and the renovated Devaney Center became the home for Husker volleyball, wrestling and the men's and women's gymnastics programs.

Eichorst came to Nebraska after serving as Director of Athletics at Miami in 2011 and 2012. He hired legendary men's basketball coach Jim Larrañaga, who led Miami to the NIT Second Round in his first season and ACC regular-season and tournament titles as well and the NCAA Sweet 16 in his second. The women's basketball program posted its highest national ranking in school history (No. 5) and advanced to the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament. The Miami women's tennis team advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight for the fourth straight season, and the baseball team made its 40th consecutive NCAA appearance. The Hurricane women's soccer team posted its first NCAA Tournament win in school history, and the volleyball team made its third straight NCAA Tournament trip.

Before heading to Miami, Eichorst was the Deputy Athletics Director at Wisconsin. He was the Chief Operating Officer and oversaw the department's daily operations, as well as the men's basketball program under the direction of Director of Athletics and former Husker Barry Alvarez.

From 2004 to 2006, Eichorst served as the Senior Associate Athletics Director for Administration at South Carolina, overseeing the department's daily operations, as well as the football and baseball programs under legendary coaches Lou Holtz, Steve Spurrier and Ray Tanner, respectively.

From 1999 to 2003, Eichorst served as the Director of Athletics at Wisconsin-Whitewater, which produced four top 10-percent finishes in the NACDA Directors Cup, one NCAA team title and two NCAA runner-up finishes. The program also featured 11 CoSIDA Academic All-America selections.

A native of Lone Rock, Wis., Eichorst was an all-conference defensive back, three-time letterwinner and 1990 football team captain for the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater. He graduated magna cum laude in business from UW-Whitewater in 1990 and in 2015 was awarded the Distinguished Alumni Award for Professional Achievement. He earned a law degree from Marquette Law School in 1995, practiced law in Milwaukee until 1999 and is a past member of the State Bar of Wisconsin Board of Governors. He served as an assistant adjunct professor of law at Marquette, where he taught classes in sports law. He serves on the Marquette University National Sports Law Institute Board of Advisors and in 2006, Marquette awarded Eichorst the Sports Law Alumnus of the Year Award. He is also a graduate of the Sports Management Institute and serves on its Executive Committee.

Shawn and his wife Kristin have three sons: Jack, Joseph and Bennett.

RONNIE GREEN

Chancellor (First Year) Virginia Tech (1983)

Ronnie Green assumed full authority as the University of Nebraska-Lincoln's 20th chancellor on May 8, 2016.

Prior to being named chancellor, Green served for six years as the Harlan Vice Chancellor of the Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources. In this role, he also jointly served as the Vice President for Agriculture and Natural Resources of the University of Nebraska system. Since 2015, Green also was UNL's Senior Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs, the institution's chief academic officer and responsible authority in the absence of the chancellor.

Green was raised on a mixed beef, dairy, and cropping farm in southwestern Virginia. He received bachelor and master's degrees in animal science from Virginia Tech and Colorado State University, respectively. His doctoral program was completed jointly at the University of Nebraska and the USDA-ARS U.S. Meat Animal Research Center in animal breeding and genetics in 1988.

Green has served on the animal science faculties of Texas Tech University and Colorado State University, and as the national program leader for animal production research for the USDA's Agricultural Research Service and executive secretary of the White House's interagency working group on animal genomics within the National Science and Technology Council where he was one of the principal leaders in the international bovine, porcine, and ovine genome sequencing projects. Prior to returning to NU, Green served as senior global director of technical services for Pfizer Animal Health's animal genomics business.

Green has published 130 refereed publications and abstracts, nine book chapters and 56 invited symposia papers; and has delivered invited presentations in 43 U.S. states and 21 countries around the world. He is a past-president of both the American Society of Animal Science and the National Block and Bridle Club, and has served in a number of leadership positions for the U.S. Beef Improvement Federation, National Cattlemen's Beef Association, National Pork Board, Federated Animal Science Societies and the National Research Council. He was named a fellow of ASAS in 2014 and, in 2015, a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the world's largest general scientific society.

JOSEPHINE POTUTO

Faculty Athletic Representative (20th Year) Rutgers Douglass (1967)

Josephine (Jo) R. Potuto, the Richard H. Larson Professor of Constitutional Law, has been Nebraska's faculty representative (FAR) at the NCAA and conference level since May 15, 1997.

In 2002, Potuto was named Outstanding Faculty Athletics Representative by the All-American Football Foundation. From 2008-09 to 2011-12 she was president of the 1A FAR (FARs from FBS institutions). Among her NCAA positions, Potuto spent nine years (the maximum) on the NCAA Division I Committee on Infractions (chair her last two years). She was one of three Big 12 Conference representatives on the NCAA Division I Management Council, and served on the NCAA Men's Gymnastics Championship Committee and an NCAA-wide (all divisions) committee to advise NCAA staff on student-athlete issues and educational programming for coaches, staff, and student-athletes.

A sports law expert, Potuto regularly lectures and consults on sports issues in general and NCAA processes in particular. She is an expert witness in litigation involving sports issues. She testified before the House Subcommittee on the Constitution regarding due process in NCAA infractions hearings.

She has appeared in media reports in the New York Times, Los Angeles Times, USA Today, Washington Post, CBSSports.com, the Chronicle of Higher Education, and Insider Higher Ed among others. She has presented to the Knight Commission on Intercollegiate Athletics, the National Association of College and University Attorneys, the Association of Public and Land Grant Universities, the Texas Commission of Higher Education, NCAA regional conferences, law conferences and law firms, NACDA, and to universities and law colleges, including the Universities of Istanbul, Washington, Maryland, Oklahoma, Santa Clara, Arizona State, Baltimore, and Mississippi.

Potuto is a past adviser to the Uniform Law Commissioners Committee to draft a sports agent statute, has drafted rules governing search and seizure and hearings for the Nebraska Racing Commission, and also has written on issues of gender equity in college athletics. She has authored numerous articles on sports law issues. She just completed articles on NCAA treatment of student-athlete violations and on NCAA and Olympic treatment of athlete violations (co-authored with an Olympic arbitrator).

Potuto delivered the 2012 Chancellor's Distinguished Lecture. She serves on the senate's intercollegiate athletics committee. She is a past member of the UNL academic senate and also served on Nebraska's NCAA site certification steering committee.

TOM DUFRESNE
ATHLETIC TRAINER

Tom Dufresne enters his 19th year as head women's gymnastics physical therapist and athletic trainer in 2016-17, and serves as the athletic trainer responsible for rifle, women's golf and bowling. Dufresne also assists in the coordination of rehabilitation for Nebraska's Olympic sports, including men's and women's tennis, volleyball, men's and women's track and field and softball.

A former head student athletic trainer at Nebraska, Dufresne joined the Husker athletic medicine staff as an assistant athletic trainer and physical therapist in 1997. He previously served as an assistant athletic trainer at UCLA for nine years before receiving his master's degree in physical therapy in 1991 at Samuel Merritt College in Oakland, Calif.

Originally from Ventura, Calif., Dufresne graduated from Nebraska in 1980. His brother, Mark, was a letterman on the NU football team in 1976 and 1977.

Tom and his wife, Iffat, have been married for 31 years.

KARIN FUSCO
RIFLE OFFICE SECRETARY

Karin Fusco joined the Nebraska Athletic Department in January of 2009. She serves as the administrative assistant for the rifle and women's gymnastics programs.

Prior to joining the Husker staff, Fusco owned her own business, K&S Medical Transcription, while serving as the office manager for KRL Psychological Services.

A Lincoln native, Fusco graduated from Southeast Community College with an associate's degree in word processing and secretarial technology with a medical specialization. She has two sons, Gage and Avery.

ERICA NETT

A native of Gretna, Neb., Rhodes is a junior at Nebraska majoring in mechanical engineering.

EXECUTIVE ASSOCIATE A.D. CFO

John Jentz has served Nebraska Athletics as Executive Associate Athletic Director/Chief Financial Office since January of 2014. Jentz, who came to Nebraska after spending four years in a similar role at UCLA, directs and oversees all financial and business office operations, including the development and implementation of the annual operating and capital projects budgets as well as all accounting functions.

At Nebraska, Jentz provides administrative and strategic leadership for the athletic department. He directs and monitors the department's financial master plan and human resources. He also oversees the gift, gift-in-kind and complimentary ticket accounting policies, procedures, approvals and reconciliations. Jentz oversees the department's risk management, while also monitoring the management of sport program camp and clinic operations.

Jentz's primary duties at UCLA included management of the department's financial master plan and annual budget. He served as the principal advisor to the Director of Athletics with respect to long-term programming and planning, including assessing the resources available for the development of major capital projects. He also directed the human resources unit that included over 200 full-time coaches and staff, supervised the information technology unit, and was the sport administrator for the 2013 College World Series Champion Bruin baseball program.

Prior to UCLA, Jentz spent 10 years at Wisconsin. He started as an Assistant Athletic Director for Sports Administration in 2000, and was named the department's Assistant Athletic Director for Business Operations in 2003. He was promoted to Associate Athletic Director in 2006. He was in charge of the day-to-day operations of the business office while also overseeing human resources, technical services, cashier's office, bowl and postseason travel. He was also the sport administrator for men's and women's rowing, and chaired the NCAA Rowing Committee during his tenure.

Jentz was an Assistant Athletic Director at Cal State Fullerton for five years prior to joining the staff at Wisconsin. He supervised eight sports and oversaw the athletic business office and ticket office for the Titans. Before his time at Fullerton, he was an accountant in the business office at UC Riverside, and later managed development funds and assisted with coordinating events for the Highlanders.

A 1992 graduate of Brigham Young University, Jentz began his administrative career at East Stroudsburg University, where he was a graduate assistant to the Athletic Director while earning his master's degree in sports management in 1993.

John and his wife, Nancy, have five daughters: Kristy, Marin, Emma, Serena and Lindsay.

PAT LOGSDON
EXECUTIVE ASSOCIATE A.D. ADMINISTRATION/SWA

A member of the Nebraska Athletic Department since 1979, Pat Logsdon serves as Executive Associate Athletic Director for Administration and is a member of NU's senior management team. She is Nebraska's Senior Woman Administrator to the NCAA and the Big Ten Conference and serves on the Big Ten Sports Management Council.

Logsdon's duties include oversight on all administrative issues and operational functions of the Athletic Director's office. She also oversees the areas of Department Travel, including bowl and postseason travel, the Department's Gender Equity Plan, equipment and serves as a liaison to adidas.

In addition, Logsdon manages student-athlete end of season evaluations and exit interviews. She also serves as the sport administrator for volleyball, beach volleyball, softball and men's and women's gymnastics.

Previously, Logsdon spent 23 seasons in football operations, including six seasons as NU's director of football operations, the first female in Division I to serve in that capacity. She handled organization of all recruiting functions, supervised compliance activities and coordinated all football administrative operations, including travel and practice operations.

Logsdon earned a bachelor's degree in education from Nebraska.

2016-17 Nebraska Rifle Seniors

JAYCEE CARTER

Senior Live Oak, California

HONORS & AWARDS

- NRA All-American (HM, Air Rifle, 2015)
- Academic All-Big Ten (2015, 2016)
- Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Fall 2013, 2014, 2015; Spring 2014, 2015, 2016)
- Tom Osborne Citizenship Team (2014, 2015, 2016)
- Top J2 at Junior Olympic National Shooting Air Gun Championships
- Junior Olympic National Championship Team (Sutter High School, 2012)

SEASON OUTLOOK (2016-17)

Jaycee Carter will be looked to for leadership both on and off the range, as one of only three upperclassmen on a young Husker squad. The Live Oak, Calif., native broke the Nebraska junior class record for average air rifle score with an average of 589.40 in 2015-16.

As a junior she competed in every match for the Huskers in both smallbore and air rifle. She helped carry the team into the postseason, including an eighth-place NCAA finish and a sixth-place GARC finish. She earned a career-best in air rifle (594) last season and a season-best score of 574 in smallbore.

Carter is a returning All-American and hopes to lead the team back to the NCAA Championships for the fifth consecutive season and take aim at a national title in her final season at Nebraska.

Carter has a reputation for being a star in the classroom as well and is expected to represent the team in the same manner this season. She is a two-time Academic All-Big Ten pick and has been named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll each semester she has been enrolled at Nebraska.

JUNIOR (2015-16)

As a junior, Carter became one of Nebraska's top shooters, appearing in every match during the season. She posted a career-best air rifle score of 594 during the 2015-16 season. Her air rifle average (589.40) during the season broke the school record for the highest air rifle average from a junior.

Carter played an important role in the team's fourth consecutive trip to the NCAA Championships. She tallied a 591 in air rifle to lead the Huskers in the discipline. She helped carry the team to an eighth-place national finish in 2016.

Carter's success extended off the range as well. In the classroom, she earned a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll for the sixth consecutive semester in the spring of 2016. Additionally she was named to the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team for the third consecutive year for her efforts in the community.

Carter became an important part of the team as a sophomore, appearing 15 times in air rifle and 14 times in smallbore. She competed at the NCAA Championships, helping Nebraska finish fourth overall. Carter tied her career-best air rifle score (593) twice against West Virginia and TCU. She was named an honorable-mention All-American by the NRA for her efforts in air rifle on the season. An academic All-Big Ten choice, Carter also claimed a spot on the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team.

FRESHMAN (2013-14)

Carter fired a personal-best score of 593 in air rifle against Army, tying the highest score of the season for Nebraska. In smallbore, she fired a season-high 582 at the NCAA Qualifiers.

Off the range, Carter earned spots on the Nebraska-Scholar Athlete Honor Roll in the fall and spring semesters of 2013-14, and she was recognized for her efforts in the community when she was named to the inaugural Tom Osborne Citizenship Team.

SEASON OUTLOOK (2016-17)

A returning All-American, Rachel Martin will help lead the Huskers this season both on and off the range, as one of only three upperclassmen on a young Husker squad. As a junior she competed in every match for the Huskers in both smallbore and air rifle. She helped carry the team into the postseason, including an eighth-place NCAA finish and a sixth-place GARC finish. Martin fired career-best score of 590 in smallbore and a season-high score of 596 in air rifle to tie the school record for highest air rifle score ever produced by a junior.

Martin also is expected to pave the way for the team in the classroom. She has earned a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll each semester she's been enrolled at the university and earned her second Academic All-Big Ten Award in 2016.

As a senior, she hopes to lead the team back to the NCAA Championships for the fifth consecutive season and get a shot at bringing home her second individual national title.

JUNIOR (2015-16)

The 2015 NCAA smallbore champion, Martin returned as a leader for Nebraska as a junior in 2015-16. The All-American from Peralta, N.M., competed in every meet for the Huskers, including the postseason, where the team qualified for its fourth consecutive trip to the NCAA Championships, finishing eighth. Martin added her sixth and seventh All-America honors as a junior, one from the NRA and one from the CRCA.

The seven-time All-American added Academic All-Big Ten honors in 2015, and earned a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in both the fall and spring semesters.

Martin emerged as one of the nation's top shooters in her second season at Nebraska. The sophomore captured the NCAA smallbore title while earning All-America honors from both the NRA and CRCA. Martin's performances helped the Huskers to a fourth-place team finish at the 2015 NCAA Championships.

The third Husker to ever win an NCAA championship, Martin tied her career-best smallbore score of 585 twice and shattered her previous career-best air rifle score by four points. Her personal-best air rifle score of 597 also set the record for the best individual air rifle score at Nebraska. She was an NRA and CRCA All-American for the second consecutive year, and was also a second-team All-GARC selection in smallbore, air rifle and combined.

Off the range, Martin earned academic All-Big Ten honors in 2015, and was named to the Nebraska-Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll both the fall and spring semesters. She claimed a spot on the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team for her efforts in the community.

Martin produced a strong freshman campaign, averaging 586.67 in air rifle and 579.64 in smallbore. She fired a then-career-high score of 593 in air rifle two times, once against NC State and again at the NCAA Qualifiers. In smallbore, Martin fired a 585 against NC State, beating her previous high smallbore score. In the postseason, Martin finished second in smallbore at the GARC Championships. She qualified for the 2014 NCAA Championships and helped the Huskers to a fifth-place team finish.

Martin was recognized for her success on the range when she was named an All-American by both the NRA and the CRCA.

Martin was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall and spring semesters of 2013-14, while also being named to the inaugural Tom Osborne Citizenship Team for her efforts in the community.

HONORS & AWARDS

- Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Fall 2015; Spring 2016)
- Arizona Junior Olympic Champion
- NRA Champion (Arizona)
- National Junior Olympic Championship Qualifier

Hannah Virga, who tied the school record for highest air rifle score (597) last season, will help replace the loss of four seniors on a young Husker squard with only three upperclassmen. Virga is one of two underclassmen with significant collegiate experience, after appearing 12 times in smallbore and 13 times in air rifle as a freshman.

As a sophomore, she hopes to make regular contributions for Nebraska and help the team return to the NCAA Championships for the fifth consecutive season.

FRESHMAN (2015-16)

Virga came to Nebraska as one of three signees in Coach Ashley MacAllister's first recruiting class. The Arizona native appeared 12 times in smallbore and 13 times in air rifle. On Nov. 1, 2015, Virga fired a 597, tying Rachel Martin for the highest air rifle score. Virga saw the second-most action on the range among the freshman class.

In the classroom, Virga made her mark, earning spots on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall and spring semesters.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Virga started formal rifle training at the age of 7. As a shooter, Virga was first publicly recognized when she was 10-years-old, being named the APS Power Player of the Year while competing in the Grand Canyon State games. She was a State Junior Olympic Champion and NRA Champion in Arizona. In 2015, Virga qualified for the Junior Olympic National Championships and shot an air rifle score of 392 out of 400, which is the highest mark ever posted by a junior from The Rio Salado Sportsman's Club.

RACHEL YAGER

HONORS & AWARDS

- Tom Osborne Citizenship Team (2016)
- Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Fall 2015; Spring 2016)
- Montana State Champion (Smallbore)
- Montana State Champion (Air Rifle)
- National Junior Olympic Championship Qualifier

SEASON OUTLOOK (2016-17)

Rachel Yager will compete for a regular spot in the Husker lineup as a sophomore. The sophomore from Bozeman, Mont., saw some action in her first season at Nebraska, but will look to help fill the void left by four graduated seniors. She posted career-highs scores of 559 and 579 in smallbore and air rifle, respectfully, in 2015-16.

FRESHMAN (2015-16)

Yager was one of three signees in Coach Ashley MacAllister's first recruiting class at Nebraska in 2015-16. Yager appeared four times in smallbore and five times in air rifle in her first season. She made an immediate impact in the classroom, earning spots on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in both semesters.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Yager began shooting competitively at age 8, as a member of the Gallatin Valley Sharpshooters. She was an active member of the club for a decade, both as an athlete and coach.

CAREER STATISTICS

Korthas will compete for a regular spot in both smallbore and air rifle and hopes to help the Huskers return to the NCAA Championships for the fifth consecutive season.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Korthas was a member of the Gallatin Valley Sharpshooters, led by Coach Lee Nelson.

In 2016, Korthas was named the Montana State Champion in women's air rifle. She also finished sixth at the 2015 Rocky Mountain Rifle Junior Championships in women's air rifle. That same year, Korthas placed 47th in women's air rifle at the Rifle and Pistol National Championships with a personal-best 405.3.

In 2014, Korthas competed at the Junior Olympic Championships in women's air rifle.

QUOTING MADDIE:

"I chose Nebraska for its outstanding pre-veterinary program, and all of the team's success. By attending the University of Nebraska, I believe that my future is very bright during my college career and beyond."

PERSONAL

Maddison (Maddie) is the daughter of Dan and Melanie Korthas. She was born on Feb. 15, 1998, in Bozeman, Mont. Her major is undeclared, but she is in the pre-vet program at Nebraska.

Off the range, Maddie enjoys hiking, hunting, water sports and horseback riding. She was a member of the honor roll at Belgrade High School during her freshman and sophomore years. She also participated in FCCLA and FFA in high school.

Maddie and current Husker sophomore Rachel Yager, have competed together as members of the same shooting club for seven years.

SAMANTHA PETERSON

Freshman Ham Lake, Minnesota

SEASON OUTLOOK (2016-17)

Samantha Peterson is one of five additions to the Nebraska rifle team. Peterson hopes to make an immediate impact on a young Husker squad that lost four seniors. Peterson is expected to compete for a spot in both smallbore and air rifle in hopes of helping the Huskers return to the NCAA Championships for the fifth consecutive season.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Peterson advanced to the 2016 American Legion Junior 3-Position Air Rifle National Championships. She competed against 1,500 individuals and was one of the top 15 finalists. She compete at the Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs, Colo., July 19-23 in the finals and finished fourth.

The 2015-16 Nebraska rifle team produced its fourth consecutive top-eight finish after placing eighth at the 2016 NCAA Championships under second-year head coach Ashley MacAllister and first-year assistant coach Rick Johnson.

The Huskers qualified for the NCAA Championships for the fourth consecutive year, marking the second-longest streak since rifle became a varsity sport at NU in 1998-99.

The team's eighth-place finish at the NCAA Championships capped a very successful 2015-16 season that included several personal-best scores, new school records and a pair of All-Americans.

The Huskers started the season by traveling to Colorado Springs for a pair of matches. On Oct. 10, NU battled Air Force. Despite solid air rifle performances from Rachel Martin (593), Jaycee Carter (591) and Hannah Virga (591), the Huskers fell to the Falcons 4,680-4,662. Freshmen Jordan Miller and Hannah Yager each shot well in their collegiate debut, firing a 567 in smallbore and a 579 in air rifle, respectively.

On Oct. 11, Hannah Virga broke the school record for highest air rifle score by a freshman (594) against No. 1 West Virginia. Maggie Mical notched a season-high air rifle score of 588, but the Mountaineers outlasted the Huskers 4,714-4,654.

NU had a bye week to prepare for a two-day match against TCU and Memphis on Oct. 24-25 in Fort Worth, Texas. The Huskers came in second, defeating Memphis, but falling to TCU. Carter tallied a career-best air rifle score of 594. NU finished with a final team score of 4,675. TCU scored 4,708 and Memphis scored 4,654.

Despite starting the season 1-3, the Huskers showed their resiliency by bouncing back to win three of their next four matches, beginning with a weekend sweep in Charleston, S.C., on Oct. 31 and Nov. 1. The Huskers topped NC State 4,666-4,636, on Oct. 31, after dominating in smallbore by more than 20 points. The following day, NU overcame Army West Point 4,663-4,616. Virga fired a 597 in air rifle to break her own record for highest air rifle score ever shot by a freshman, which she set earlier in the season. Additionally, she tied Rachel Martin as the school record holder for highest overall air rifle score (597).

After another off week, Nebraska had its only two home matches of the season. On Nov. 14, the Huskers welcomed the top-ranked Kentucky Wildcats to the NU Rifle Range. The Huskers tallied a higher smallbore score, but the Wildcats got the best of the Huskers in air rifle and defeated NU 4,676-4,645.

The following weekend, Nebraska hosted Akron on Senior Day Nov. 21. The team ended the fall season on a high note, flying by the Zips 4,670-4,612. The Huskers continued their hot streak in air rifle, firing a score of 2,360, the sixth-best score in school history. Rachel Martin was the top shooter of the day with 596. Denise Martin and Alexandrea Lorentz both made a mark during their last home match of the season, firing personal-best air rifle scores of 593 and 591, respectively. Katie Brown and Rachel Yager also notched career-high score in smallbore, finishing with 556 and 559, respectively. Mical posted a season-high score in smallbore (578).

Nebraska finished the fall season 4-4 and had almost a two-month break before returning to competition.

On Jan. 16, Nebraska traveled to Oxford, Miss., to compete against Murray State and Ole Miss. The Huskers finished with a team score of 4,672. Murray State ended in first with a score of 4,687, while Ole Miss placed third with 4,593. Nina Radulovic earned a personal-high in smallbore (584).

The following weekend, NU faced Murray State in Kentucky, and fell to the Racers 4,691-4,677. Denise Martin and Miller earned personal-best scores; Martin in smallbore (589) and Miller in air rifle (588).

Nebraska continued a series of away matches on Jan. 31 in Columbus, Ohio, where the Huskers knocked off Ohio State 4,674-4,672.

After a week off, Nebraska competed in its final two matches of the regular season in Annapolis, Md. On Feb. 13, NU dominated Ole Miss 4,667-4,631. Freshman Nina Radulovic fired a career-best score of 593 in air rifle against the Rebels.

On Feb. 14, Nebraska had an impressive finish to its regular season, including several personal-best scores, a season-high team score (4,680) and a team victory over Navy. Rachel Martin earned a career-high score (590) in smallbore, while Denise Martin tallied a personal best in air rifle (594). With the win over Navy, Nebraska finished the regular season 8-6, including winning its last three matches.

A week later, the Huskers began postseason action at the NCAA Qualifiers in Murray, Ky., where the team finished second in their session and qualified for the 2016 NCAA Championships for the fourth consecutive season with a score of 4,668.

Nebraska competed at the GARC Championships in Oxford, Miss., Feb. 26-28. Brown earned a career high in air rifle (575), Marissa Major tied her career-best air rifle score (584) and Virga clinched a career best in smallbore (570) at the championships. As a team, the Huskers finished sixth with 4,638.

Denise Martin and Rachel Martin were recognized for their efforts by the conference. Denise Martin was honored in each of the three categories. The Chewelah, Wash., native earned honorable-mention in smallbore, air rifle and the two combined. It was her third consecutive season earning All-GARC honors. Rachel Martin earned a spot on the second team in smallbore and combined. She was also the Nebraska recipient for the scholar-athlete award. As a team, Nebraska placed third in the conference during the regular season, behind West Virginia and Kentucky.

The Huskers concluded their season at the NCAA Championships in Akron, Ohio, on March 11-12. NU finished eighth with a score of 4,650. West Virginia took home its fourth consecutive national title with a combined score of 4,703. TCU claimed second (4,694), while Murray State clinched third (4,690).

Denise Martin and Rachel Martin each claimed All-America honors for their tremendous efforts on the rifle range. Both Huskers claimed second-team honors from the NRA in smallbore. Rachel Martin was also named a CRCA honorable-mention All-American (combined).

Rachel Martin returns for her senior season in 2016-17, along with 2015 NRA All-American Jaycee Carter. As the only two seniors, Martin and Carter will serve as primary leaders on a young Husker squad in pursuit of a fifth straight NCAA appearance in 2017.

Jordan Miller competed seven times in smallbore and six times in air rifle for the Huskers as a freshman, firing career-highs of 567 and 588, respectively.

Hannah Virga joined teammate Rachel Martin as Nebraska's highest air rifle scorer when she fired a 597 as a freshman on Nov. 1, 2015. Virga's performance also broke the NU record for highest air rifle score by a freshman, breaking the previous record of 593 set by six current and former Huskers, including Martin and Jaycee Carter.

NEBRASKA RIFLE RECORDS

Note: Scoring for both the smallbore and air rifle competitions changed following the 2003-04 season. To express this change, the top scores from both the previous 120/40 Shot System and the new 60/60 Shot System are listed when available.

Seniors Rachel Martin (left) and Jaycee Carter (right) have not only excelled on the rifle range, but they have also been stellar in the classroom since arriving at NU. Both are two-time Academic All-Big Ten picks and earned spots on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll each semester they've attended Nebraska.

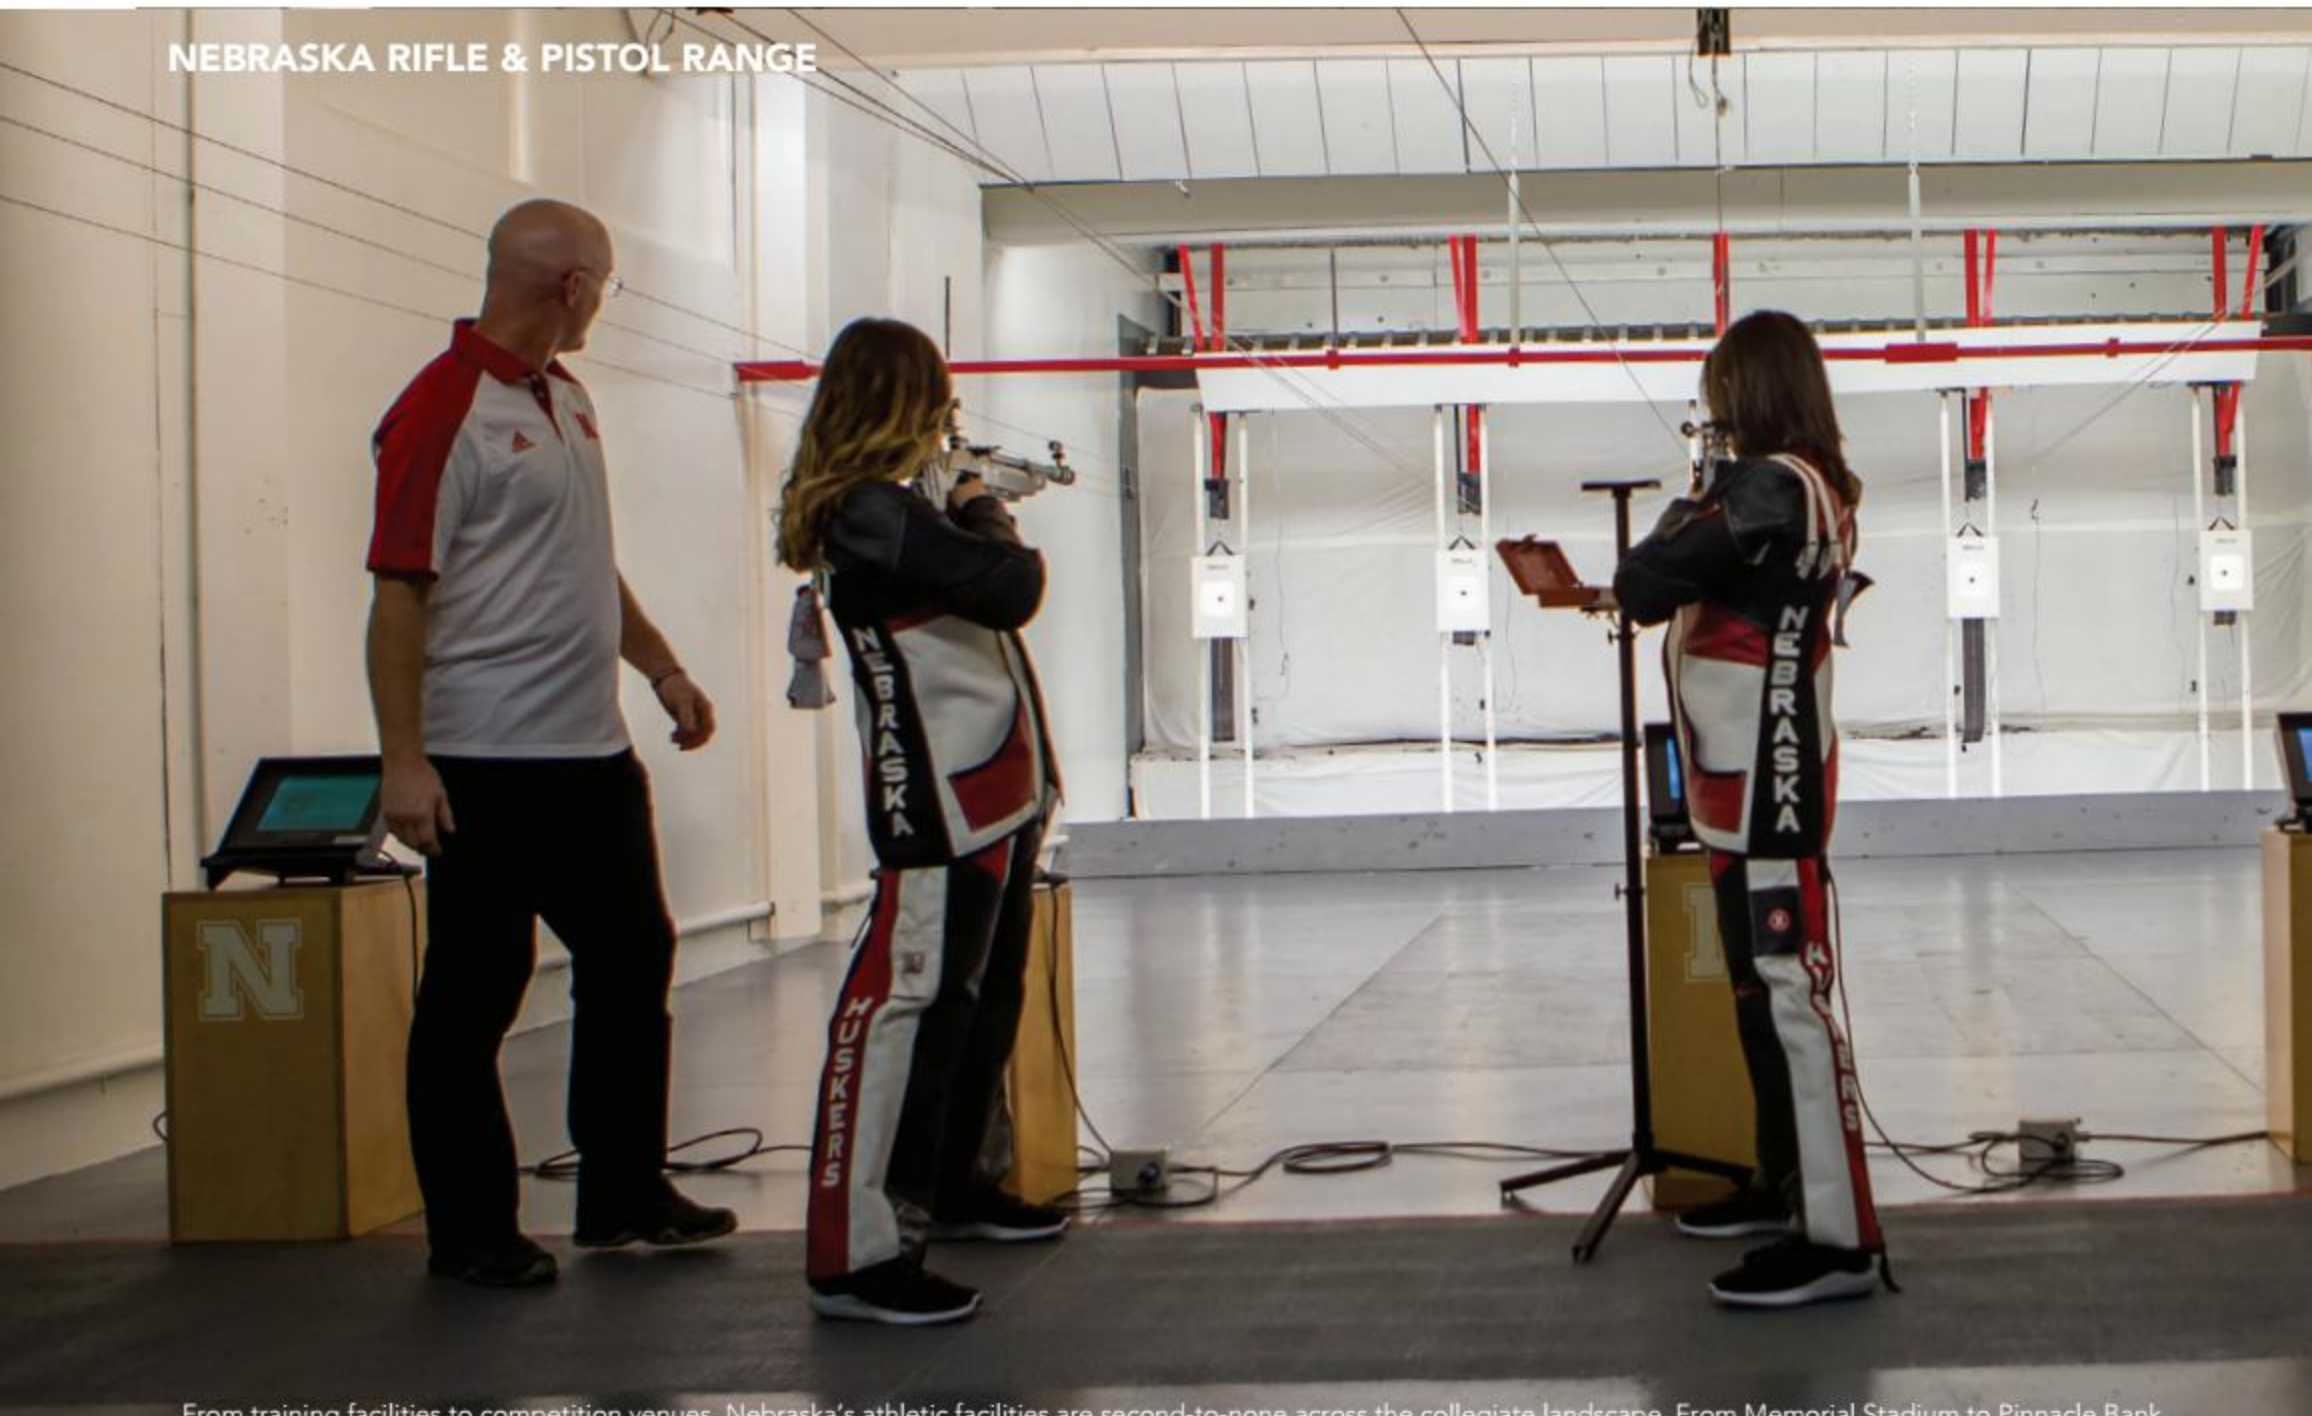
WORLD-CLASS FACILITIES



From training facilities to competition venues, Nebraska's athletic facilities are second-to-none across the collegiate landscape. From Memorial Stadium to Pinnacle Bank Arena to the new Nebraska Soccer and Tennis Complex, Husker student-athletes have the benefits of training and competing in state-of-the-art facilities. Fans across the state and region support Husker Athletics, as football, volleyball, men's and women's basketball, baseball, men's and women's gymnastics, wrestling, women's soccer and softball all finished in the top-15 nationally in attendance during the 2015-16 year.

In April 2006, Nebraska became just the second university in the nation to add electronic targets to its rifle facilities. First seen only in international and Olympic competition, the electronic targets were added to the U.S. Air Force Academy's facilities before the Huskers adopted the new technology.

Electronic targeting enables shooters to aim at only one target instead of 10 different targets. The machine contains a roll of black paper, which refills the open target with a clean piece of paper after every shot. Four microphones in the electronic targets sense the precision of the shot, transmitting the information to an online computer monitor.

One of the nation's finest training facilities, the Nebraska Rifle Range is located in the lower level of the Military and Naval Science Building.

The Nebraska volleyball team captured its fourth NCAA title with a win over Texas in the championship match at the CenturyLink Center in Omaha on Dec. 19, 2015. Five Husker volleyball players, including NCAA Tournament Most Outstanding Player Mikaela Foecke, earned All-America honors in 2015. Volleyball's championship was the first of seven top-10 NCAA team finishes for Husker programs in 2015-16.

Ryan Boldt helped the Huskers advance to the 2016 NCAA Tournament. The two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American was chosen in the second round of the 2016 MLB Draft by the Tampa Bay Rays.

Tierra Williams earned a trio of All-America awards in 2016. She finished fifth in the triple jump at the NCAA Indoor and Outdoor Championships. She also swept the Big Ten indoor and outdoor titles in the triple and long jumps.

Nick Percy captured the 2016 NCAA discus crown. The two-time All-American from Ventnor, England, also won the Big Ten discus title to help the Husker men sweep the Big Ten indoor and outdoor championships.

MJ Knighten claimed first-team All-America honors at third base while helping the Nebraska softball team advance to the 2016 NCAA Regional final. Knighten hit .376 with 21 homers and 60 RBIs in 55 games.

Rachel Martin became the Nebraska rifle team's most recent national champion, winning the smallbore title at the 2015 NCAA Rifle Championships. In 2016, the Peralta, N.M., native earned her sixth and seventh career All-America awards.

The Nebraska men's track and field team swept the Big Ten indoor and outdoor titles, giving the Big Red their first sweep since 2004. A total of 19 Huskers combined for 24 All-America awards in men's and women's track and field in 2016.

TJ Dudley (184 pounds) took second at the 2016 NCAA Wrestling Championships. NU's Male Athlete of the Year, Dudley helped the Huskers to eighth place for their 20th top-10 team finish in history.

Kadie Rolfzen captured first-team All-America honors as an outside hitter while leading the Nebraska volleyball team to the 2015 NCAA title. Rolfzen, a three-time All-American, was Nebraska's Female Athlete of the Year.

Shavon Shields earned second-team All-Big Ten honors after averaging 16.8 points and 5.1 rebounds in 2015-16. Nebraska's Male Student-Athlete of the Year, Shields was a two-time first-team CoSIDA Academic All-American.

A six-time All-American and two-time Big Ten champion for the Nebraska women's gymnastics team in her career, Hollie Blanske took third on vault at the 2016 NCAA Championships to help the Huskers finish eighth.

NATION'S BEST FANS

Nebraska was the only NCAA Division I program to rank in the top 15 nationally in attendance in football and men's basketball in 2015-16. In fact, Nebraska ranked in the top 15 in attendance across 10 sports and drew well over 1.3 million fans in 2015-16.

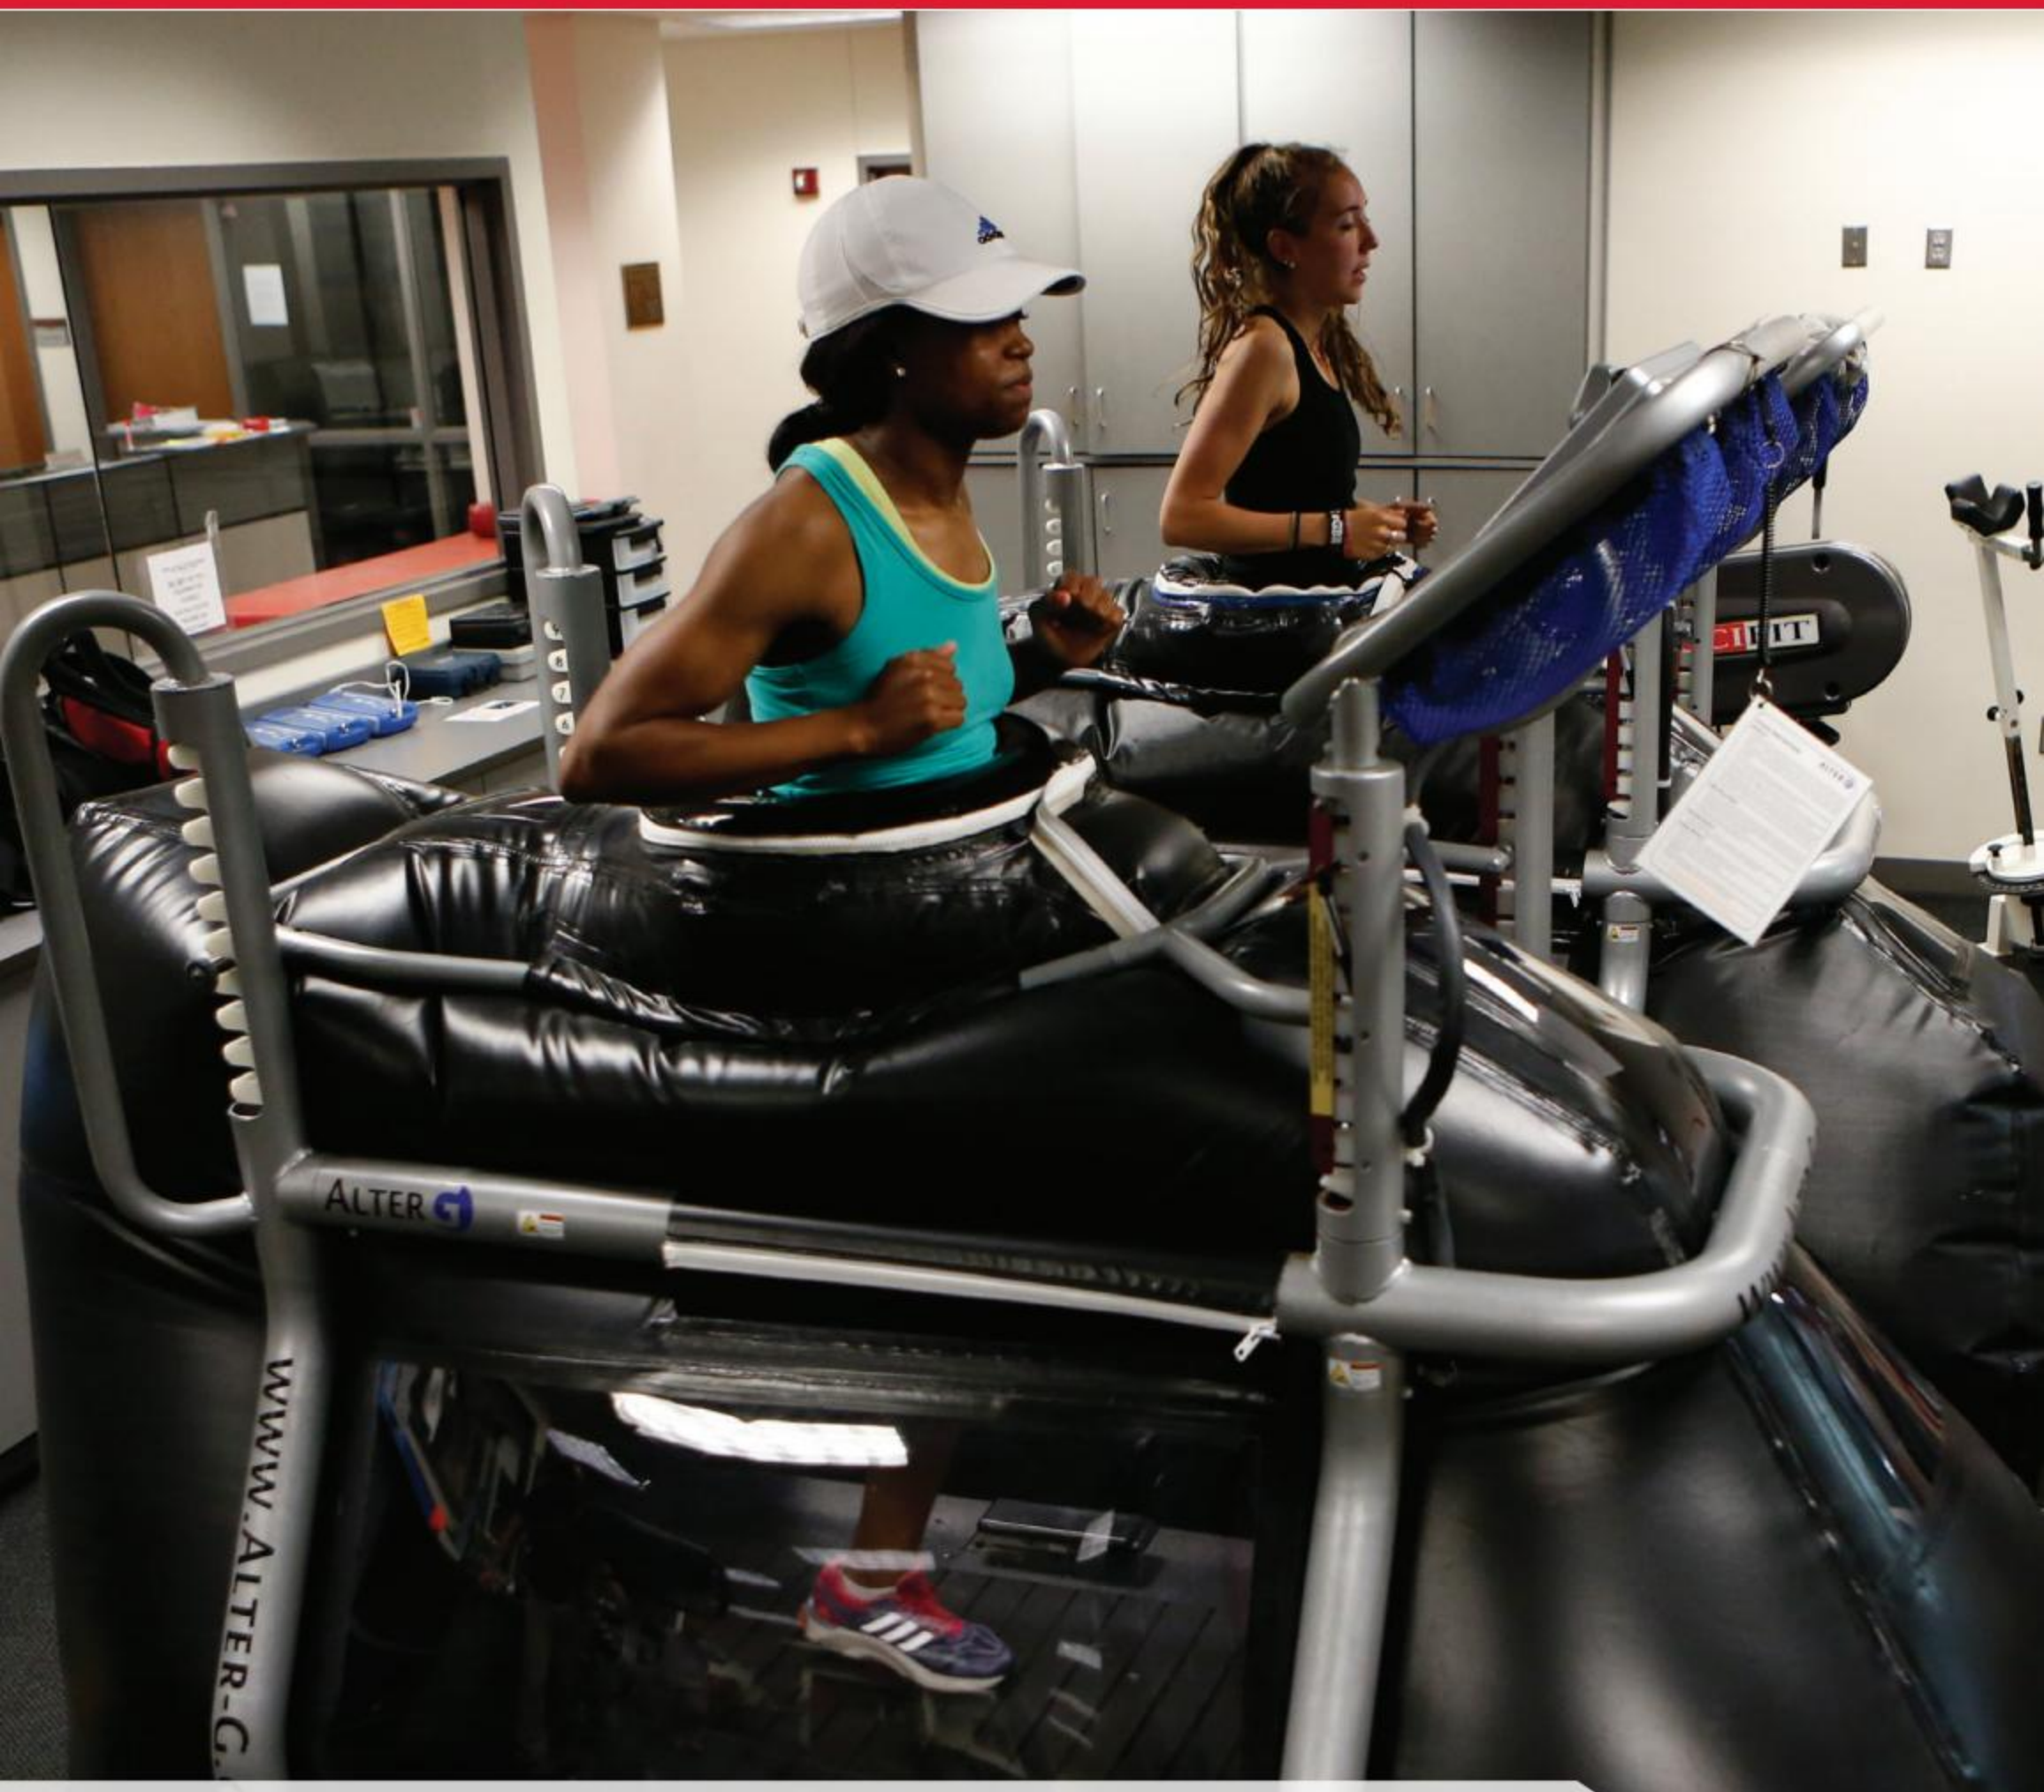
ATHLETIC MEDICINE



EXCEPTIONAL CARE FOR ALL STUDENT-ATHLETES

Providing expert care to more than 600 Husker student-athletes, Nebraska features one of the most well-trained and highly skilled athletic medicine staffs in the country. Under the guidance of Director of Athletic Medicine Dr. Lonnie Albers, Head Athletic Trainer and Physical Therapist Jerry Weber and Rifle Head Athletic Trainer Tom Dufresne, the 2016-17 Nebraska athletic medicine staff consists of five doctors, 13 full-time athletic trainers, seven graduate assistant athletic trainers, a full-time in-house athletic sports psychologist and sports psychiatry consultants who work directly with student-athletes.

Nebraska's medical facilities have long been among the nation's best, and NU's athletic medicine center within the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex will keep the Huskers on the front line of technology for decades to come. In addition to Nebraska's North Stadium facility, Haymarket Park, the Bob Devaney Sports Center, Pinnacle Bank Arena and the Nebraska Soccer and Tennis Complex all feature athletic medicine areas. The Devaney Center's Athletic Medicine facility underwent an extensive expansion as part of the Hendricks Training Complex addition in 2011.

Top: Nebraska's on-site medical services for student-athletes rank among the nation's best. Head Athletic Trainer Jerry Weber and the Athletic Medicine staff have X-ray equipment at Memorial Stadium.

Bottom left: The Lewis Training Table offers buffet-style service for lunch and dinner with nutritionists consulting with all student-athletes to develop comprehensive nutrition plans.

Bottom right: The Athletic Medicine Center features a hydrotherapy area that includes a three-level laned pool. The Hydroworx 1000 Treadmill Pool is equipped with two cameras underwater for evaluation and assessment, while the hot and cold plunge tanks are also available to the Huskers.

The Nebraska Athletic Performance Laboratory (NAPL) is recognized as the first performance research center within a collegiate department of athletics. The NAPL features a talented, multidisciplinary team that includes a full-time director and endocrinology lab director, two research post-doctoral fellows and a research analyst.

Located in East Memorial Stadium adjacent to UNL's Center for Brain, Biology and Behavior (CB3), the NAPL collaborates with Nebraska's Strength and Conditioning team, Husker Nutrition staff, Nebraska's Athletic Medicine staff and sports programs to offer the highest level of integration of sport performance technologies and systems.

The NAPL is made up of the Mark and Debra Classen Cardio Area, James and Karen Linder Dynamic Performance Center, Markin Family Collaborative Center, Thayer Family Athletic Research Lab and cutting-edge equipment donated by the Suzanne and Walter Scott Foundation. The main entrance for the research facilities is located in the Janet and Gerard Keating Family Concourse.

Focused on student-athlete health, safety and welfare, the NAPL is a world-leading research and performance facility focusing on the performance enhancement, safety and long-term well-being of student-athletes.

The NAPL includes simulated athletic environments for studying performance, incorporating a camera system to track human movement in 3D, force plates to measure ground reaction forces and state-of-the-art technology to assess physiological biomarkers, investigate exercise cardiovascular capacity and measure body composition.

All 24 Husker athletic programs conduct performance testing at NAPL. Force plates and motion capture videos (3D) are used to measure athletes in their development through testing results to create an athletic performance index for each athlete.

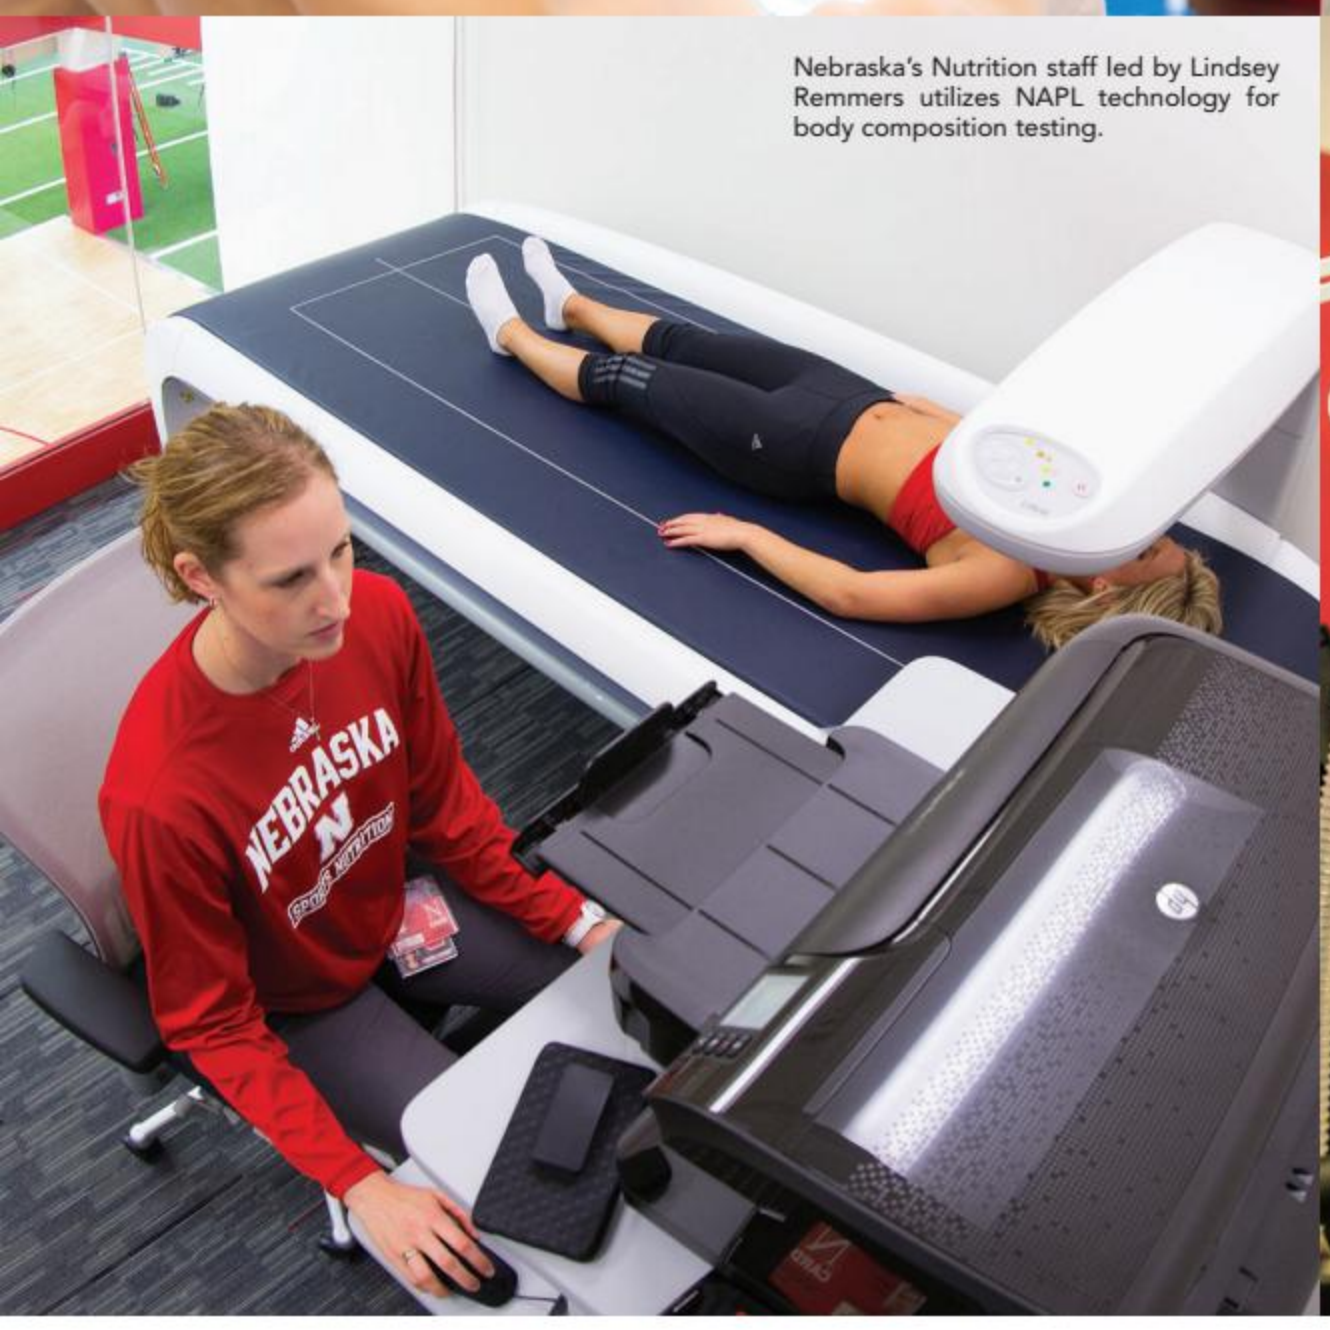
The NAPL uses IDexa as an advanced, accurate and reliable method to analyze and measure body composition.

The focus of the Thayer Family Athletic Research Lab is recovery from competition by measuring salivary biomarkers 24 hours prior to and 24 hours post-competition.

Collaborative research projects are conducted in conjunction with the Center for Brain, Biology and Behavior (CB3), including concussion prevention, treatment and return to play.

Researchers in the Thayer Family Athletic Research Lab measure salivary biomarkers to focus on recovery.

Nebraska's Strength and Conditioning team utilizes NAPL facilities and equipment to optimize performance testing across all 24 Husker sports.



Nebraska's Nutrition staff led by Lindsey Remmers utilizes NAPL technology for body composition testing.

Equipment, technology, researchers and student-athletes come together in the Nebraska Athletic Performance Laboratory to put the Huskers on the cutting edge of sport science.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

Nebraska increased its nation-leading total of CoSIDA Academic All-America awards to 325, adding five Huskers in 2015-16. Senior guard Shavon Shields (Olathe, Kan., Biological Sciences) earned his second consecutive first-team Academic All-America award in men's basketball before being named Nebraska's Male Student-Athlete of the Year. Shields (pictured right with Director of Athletics Shawn Eichorst) was also a member of the Allstate NABC Good Works Team for his outstanding community service. He was joined by Nebraska Female Student-Athlete-of-the-Year Mattie Fowler (Tucson, Ariz., Finance) as a first-team Academic All-American in 2015-16. Fowler (pictured below) was the President of the Nebraska Student-Athlete Advisory Board in 2014-15. She and Shields were Nebraska's Big Ten Medal of Honor winners in 2015-16.

The Nebraska men's track and field team continued its extraordinary run of CoSIDA Academic All-America success with three-time first-team honoree Levi Gipson (Lincoln, Neb., Nutrition, Exercise and Health Science) and fellow first-team award winner Cody Rush (Grand Island, Neb., Nutrition Science). Rush, who earned second-team CoSIDA Academic All-America accolades in 2014, joined baseball outfielder Ryan Boldt (Red Wing, Minn., Nutrition Science) as a two-time honoree. Boldt also earned third-team recognition in 2015.

Graduation is the ultimate achievement, and 109 Husker student-athletes earned undergraduate and graduate degrees in three commencement exercises at Pinnacle Bank Arena in 2015-16.

A total of 109 Nebraska student-athletes earned their degrees in 2015-16, including 62 in May 2016, 39 in December 2015 and eight in August 2015. Alexandrea Lorentz (above left) earned her bachelor's degree in May after producing a decorated career. A two-time Big Ten Distinguished Scholar and academic All-Big Ten selection, Lorentz was a three-time member of the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team and the winner of a 2015 Nebraska Student-Athlete HERO Leadership Award. Kelsey Hansen (above right) also earned her degree from Nebraska in May of 2016. Hansen was a three-time academic All-Big Ten selection and a three-time member of the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team.

Eight Huskers earned Outstanding Scholar Awards in 2015-16. The seniors with 3.900 GPAs or better were Melanie Blum (Track and Field), Michaela Cunningham (Swimming and Diving), Levi Gipson (Track and Field), Lane Hovey (Football), Ryan Irick (Men's Gymnastics), Katie Kraeutner (Soccer, pictured above), Ethan Lottman (Men's Gymnastics) and Cody Rush (Track and Field).

In 2015-16, 109 Huskers earned their college degrees including senior track and field standout Levi Gipson. Gipson became just the second three-time first-team CoSIDA Academic All-American across all sports at Nebraska, while adding prestigious NCAA and Big Ten Postgraduate scholarships worth a total of $15,000. Gipson was also a seven-time All-American on the track.

Nebraska student-athletes regularly earn prestigious postgraduate scholarships from the Big Ten and NCAA. That tradition continued in 2015-16, as two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American Cody Rush earned a $10,000 Wayne Duke Postgraduate Scholarship from the Big Ten before claiming an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship worth $7,500. Rush was also an 11-time All-American on the track.

Junior outfielder Ryan Boldt earned his second CoSIDA Academic All-America award in 2016, after helping the Nebraska baseball team to the NCAA Tournament. Boldt, who was a member of the Golden Spikes Award Midseason Watch List, was a second-round pick of the Tampa Bay Rays in the 2016 Major League Baseball Draft.

ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

"What I love most about Nebraska is the elite support they give student-athletes. My coaches, teammates and advisers were always there to encourage me and help me find solutions to the challenges that I faced. I was often inspired by other student-athletes who were driven to perform well in their sport and in their studies."

Amanda Trujillo Scrivner, Eight-Time Rifle All-American (2000-03)
Nebraska Athletics Hall of Fame Inductee (2015)

The athletic academic unit, located in the Dick and Peg Herman Family Student Life Complex, provides personal and academic support to ensure that student-athletes will get the most out of their years as Huskers. Featuring one of the most innovative and comprehensive academic support systems in the country, Nebraska is dedicated to helping its student-athletes become outstanding leaders in their chosen fields. The academic support team is composed of 14 full-time staff members and is certified by the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics (N4A) as meeting the standards established by the N4A.

ACADEMIC COUNSELING

Seven academic counselors, three learning specialists and two assistant academic counselors are in place to monitor daily academic progress, receive consistent course feedback, assist with the advising/registration process and monitor continuing eligibility and progress toward graduation.

TUTORIAL SUPPORT

A tremendous resource for all academic abilities, unlimited tutorial support from approximately 120 tutors on staff is available from day one up to college graduation in all subject areas. The tutorial program is certified as a model tutoring program by the College Reading and Learning Association.

STUDY HALL

Nebraska's study hall program is housed in the D.J. Sokol Enrichment Center within the Student Life Complex. Student-athletes attend a supervised, flex-time study hall that features day, evening and weekend hours. Student-athletes are required to complete a specific number of study hours each week as determined by their academic counselor and/or coach. Additional performance-based or tutor-based study hall also may be determined by the academic counselor.

MENTORING

Academic support staff serve as mentors to all incoming student-athletes and a select group of returning student-athletes. The student-athletes meet with their mentor weekly to develop time management skills, gather and report academic progress information, and discuss academic success strategies.

EDUCATIONAL ASSESSMENTS

Assessments are administered upon the request of the student-athlete, academic counselor, or coach. Learning specialists are available to administer and score informal assessments, which include a reading comprehension and a writing assessment. When more in-depth assessments are necessary, referrals are made to a consulting psychologist who conducts the assessments. If it is determined a student-athlete has a learning disability or another medical condition that impedes the student from reaching their academic potential, appropriate accommodations are implemented by the Office of Services for Students with Disabilities.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ORIENTATION

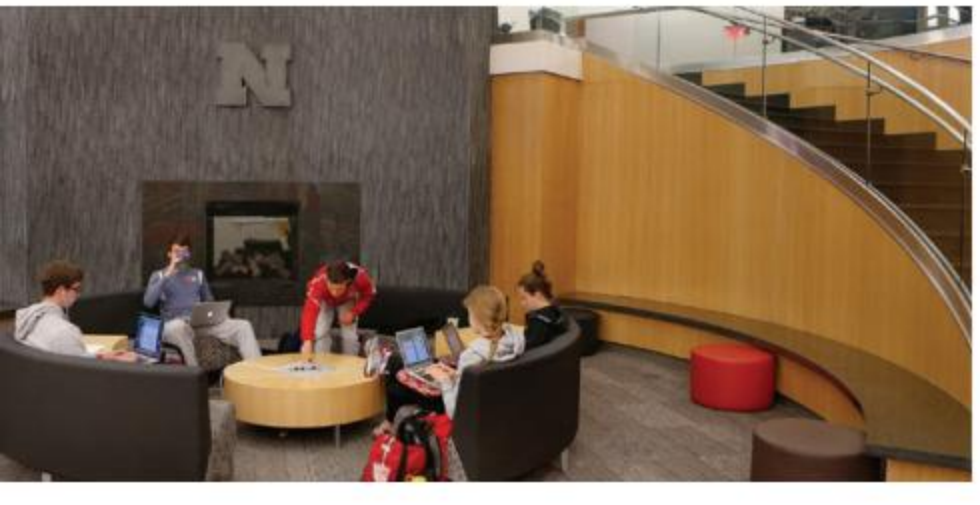
Each new student-athlete attends an orientation at the beginning of their academic career. Student-athletes are introduced to staff, faculty, administrators, and a variety of resources that help facilitate the transition into college while enhancing awareness of support services in the Athletic Department and across campus.

PERSONAL COUNSELING

Student-athletes will find a supportive and caring environment at Nebraska. Transitional issues, stress management, time management, academic focus and problem resolution are all addressed in a proactive manner throughout the year. If necessary, counseling referrals are also made to designated practitioners.

COMPUTER RESOURCES

The Herman Student Life Complex has two computer labs available for student-athletes. The Scott Technology Center features two tech tables for use on group computer projects and group study sessions. Additionally, each student-athlete is provided a laptop for use throughout their academic career at Nebraska.



Top: The main entrance to the Dick and Peg Herman Family Student Life Complex in West Memorial Stadium is the gateway to student-athlete success at Nebraska. The complex also features tributes to each of Nebraska's nation-leading 325 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans and 17 NCAA Today's Top Ten Award winners.

HUSKER STUDENT-ATHLETES

Nebraska Athletics is one of the few self-sustaining athletic programs in the country. In 2015-16, Nebraska was one of only two collegiate programs in the nation to attract more than 1.3 million fans across its seven major team sports through the doors of its world-class facilities. This incredible interest and support enables Nebraska Athletics to invest in the student-athlete experience, as well as the overall game-day experience. Nebraska is a leader in providing all the resources and support necessary for student-athletes to become successful in Academics, Athletics and Life. Nebraska will continue to strategically plan for avenues to strengthen the resources to support more than 600 Husker student-athletes across 24 sports.

In August of 2014, the NCAA Division I Board of Directors restructured the way member institutions and conferences, including the Big Ten, govern themselves. Nebraska has a great history and tradition of providing first-class benefits and support to our student-athletes. This change in governance, and subsequent legislation, has paved the way for Nebraska to enhance the benefits and experiences for our student-athletes even further. A few examples of these enhanced benefits are:

- All scholarship student-athletes across all sports will have their scholarship calculated based on the full cost of attendance.
- Every student-athlete receives an Apple MacBook Air laptop computer to enhance their learning opportunities (pictured top).
- Nebraska has increased resources and support in all academic and performance related areas including but not limited to Academic Services, Life Skills, Athletic Medicine, Athletic Training, Strength and Conditioning, Nutrition and Dining Services (Training Table).
- Nebraska created the first-known post-eligibility benefit program, where every student-athlete, who has graduated and exhausted their athletic eligibility, will have the opportunity to pursue an internship, participate in a study abroad program or attend graduate school with Nebraska's support.

ATHLETIC MEDICINE: CARING FOR HUSKERS

Nebraska's Athletic Medicine facilities rank among the nation's best, while one of the most experienced medical staffs in the nation care for all Husker student-athletes. Nebraska's medical team consists of 13 full-time athletic trainers and seven graduate assistant trainers, led by Associate Athletic Director Dr. Lonnie Albers (kneeling far left), Head Athletic Trainer and Physical Therapist Jerry Weber and Head Rifle Athletic Trainer Tom Dufresne. A full staff of orthopaedists is also available to the Huskers, led by Dr. Richard Dugas (pictured back in white). The Husker Athletic Medicine team also includes a full-time, in-house athletic psychologist, and sports psychiatry consultants who work directly with Husker student-athletes.

A LIFETIME EXPERIENCE

SPORTS NUTRITION
LEWIS TRAINING TABLE

Husker student-athletes have ample places to dine, as the Lewis Training Table is open extended hours for meals, while the North Stadium and Hendricks Training Complexes have areas for supplements for recovery after workouts or for snacks throughout the day. Nebraska's three full-time sports dietitians work with the Lewis Training Table manager and executive chef to plan and prepare meals to help maximize performance for student-athletes. Nebraska's individual nutritional counseling focuses on performance nutrition strategies, hydration, quality food choices and proper supplementation to help student-athletes reach their full potential.

ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

More than 600 student-athletes, including wide receiver Stanley Morgan Jr., benefit not only from Nebraska's full cost of attendance scholarships and the MacBook Air program, but also the amazing facilities and staff support within the Dick and Peg Herman Family Student Life Complex. Nebraska leads the nation in CoSIDA Academic All-America and NCAA Today's Top Ten awards.

ATHLETIC EXPERIENCE

Nebraska's strength and conditioning has long been at the forefront of college athletics. Under the direction of Boyd Epley, Nebraska has a staff of 14 strength coaches, including football strength coach Mark Philipp, who creates personalized strength and conditioning programs for Husker student-athletes.

LIFE SKILLS EXPERIENCE

The Husker Life Skills program allows student-athletes to continue their development and impact lives in the community. In 2015-16, Husker student-athletes, including Nina Radulovic (pictured above), completed more than 400 outreach activities while volunteering nearly 6,500 hours to impact approximately 25,000 people in Nebraska communities.

PROACTIVE EDUCATION

The Life Skills team organizes several orientations aimed at acclimating student-athletes to college life. Additionally, all incoming student-athletes attend the fall semester Husker Life Seminar. This interactive class promotes responsible decision-making, personal brand, financial literacy, leadership, involvement and service.

INDIVIDUAL MEETINGS

Every Nebraska student-athlete is assigned a Life Skills Coordinator who will arrange multiple individual meetings throughout the academic year aimed at enhancing personal and career development. The meetings help each student-athlete identify a career focus and implement a plan to increase career marketability.

CAREER COMMITMENT

Annually, Nebraska Life Skills organizes a Student-Athlete Career, Networking Night (pictured bottom right) and other career events aimed at connecting Huskers with companies desiring competitive, hard-working, accountable candidates. Athlete Network and Husker Hire Link provide opportunities to explore career opportunities across the country.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Nebraska student-athletes readily accept the role-model challenge, collectively giving more than 6,500 hours annually to impact thousands across the state of Nebraska. Outreach events include but are not limited to hospital visits, mentoring, school assemblies, statewide rallies (including the Sportsmanship 4 Life Pep Rally, pictured opposite page, bottom left), Make-A-Wish, NFL Play 60 and Husker Heroes.

LEADERSHIP

Nebraska Life Skills provides student-athletes with countless opportunities to enhance leadership skills while distinguishing themselves from the competition. Student-athletes can be members of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, Uplifting Athletes Chapter or Husker Distinction Council. UNL offers more than 600 recognized student organizations allowing athletes to collaborate with other campus leaders for common goals. Nebraska Life Skills funds and coordinates an annual one-week service abroad trip that allows 20 student-athletes to work together toward a common goal while enriching cultural competencies.

RECOGNITION

In 2015-16, eight Husker Rifle student-athletes were named to both the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team for completing a minimum of six service projects in the calendar year. A host of other recognition opportunities at the institutional, Big Ten and NCAA levels that all reflect the high ideals, character and servant leadership nurtured through community involvement also are available.

POST-ELIGIBILITY OPPORTUNITIES

Effective December 2015 and beyond, student-athletes who letter and graduate will have a three-year window to benefit from one of three post-eligibility opportunities each valued at $7,500. Upon completion of required seminars, graduates can either study abroad, complete an internship or begin graduate school within the University of Nebraska system.

DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

The Life Skills program also is responsible for all Diversity and Inclusion initiatives for Husker Athletics. The first Diversity and Inclusion Summit occurred in January of 2016 and reached all student-athletes and staff members with a message of acceptance and unity.

FOCUS ON SUCCESS IN LIFE OUTSIDE OF ATHLETICS

Regarded as the premier and most comprehensive Life Skills program in college athletics, the Husker program is committed to providing proactive education, resources and support through college and beyond to promote total person development and preparation for life after sports. Led by Senior Associate Athletic Director Keith Zimmer, five full-time staff members coordinate community involvement, career planning, effective communication strategies and much more to benefit Husker student-athletes, including Rachel Yager and Nina Radulovic, pictured below.

RED CARPET EXPERIENCE

Members of the Nebraska rifle team reveled in the red carpet experience of "A Night at the Lied", Nebraska's annual academic and life skills awards banquet in April of 2016. Each pictured member earned a spot on the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team in 2016 for their exceptional leadership and community service efforts.

SERVICE TO A MUCH LARGER COMMUNITY

In May of 2016, 20 Husker student-athletes, a Nebraska letterwinner alum and and four staff members participated in a service trip abroad to the Dominican Republic. The Huskers spent time with members of the community of Las Pajas to create a local sports court and create a mural at a community center.

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

The University of Nebraska was chartered by the Nebraska Legislature in 1869 as the state's public university and land-grant institution. Founded in Lincoln, the University of Nebraska was expanded in 1968 into a state educational system now comprising four campuses under the guidance of a Board of Regents and a central administration. Nebraska, which joined the Big Ten Conference in 2011, is a member of the Big Ten Academic Alliance, a consortium of Big Ten universities and the University of Chicago, which has generated unique opportunities for students and faculty by sharing expertise, leveraging resources and collaborating on programs.

NEBRASKA RIFLE

Nebraska rifle continues to build a tradition that rivals the Huskers' most successful programs. Entering its 19th season as a varsity sport at Nebraska, the Husker rifle team has produced 10 top-six team finishes at the NCAA Championships, including a runner-up performance at the 2006 NCAA Championships.

In 2005, the Huskers fired their way to a third-place showing at the NCAA Championships, before adding a fifth-place team finish in 2007. Nebraska made it five consecutive top-five NCAA finishes by taking fourth in 2008.

The Huskers made four consecutive appearances at the NCAA Championships in 2013, 2014, 2015 and 2016, finishing in the top eight each time (2013-7th, 2014-5th, 2015-4th, 2016-8th). In addition, three Huskers have claimed individual national titles.

Top: The 2005-06 team earned the program's best national finish after placing second at the 2006 NCAA Championships. Kristina Fehlings (pictured back row, second from the left), led the team by capturing the NCAA individual title in the air rifle. Fehlings, a native of Fairfax, Va., was a seven-time NRA All-American for the Huskers.

Above Right: One of the nation's finest training facilities, the Nebraska Rifle Range is located in the lower level of the Military and Naval Science Building. The NU Rifle Range features 10 firing points with caswell shooting stalls and electronic targets. Movable target carriers, which are controlled at the firing line, allow targets to be placed at any distance up to a maximum firing distance of 50 feet. Permanent stops for the targets are located at 10 meters and at 50 feet for NCAA air rifle and smallbore competition.

Top Left: Nicole Allaire became the Huskers' first individual national champion. She took home the smallbore title in 2000.

Bottom Left: Rachel Martin is the most recent member of the Husker rifle team to win an individual championship. The seven-time All-American claimed the smallbore title at the 2015 NCAA Championships as a sophomore.
